

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS
DIVISION OF ST. THOMAS AND ST. JOHN

ARNOLD GOLDEN, on behalf of Himself ) and all others similarly situated, ) Plaintiff, )

vs. )

BANCO POPULAR DE PUERTO RICO, )

Defendant. )

Civil No. 2020-95

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO APPROVE
SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT

This matter is before the Court on the Parties' Joint Motion to Approve Supplemental Notice of Settlement. [ECF 134]. Considering the relevant factual background, the law, the Motion, and any other arguments made before the Court, and the Court's record, it is ORDERED that the Motion is GRANTED as follows:

1. The Supplemental Notice Plan set out within the Motion, including the form and method of the proposed Supplemental Postcard Notice and Supplemental Long Form Notice, is APPROVED;

2. The Settlement Administrator SHALL mail the Supplemental Postcard Notice no later than March 14, 2024;

3. To provide notice and an opportunity to opt-out to the 3,372 Settlement class Members to whom Supplemental Notice is sent (the "Supplemental Notice Group"), the opt-out and objection deadlines established in the Court's Order Granting Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [ECF 119] are EXTENDED to May 29, 2024, only for the Supplemental Notice Group; and

Arnold Golden v. Banco Popular de Puerto Rico
Civil No. 2020-95
Page 2

4. A hearing to consider any timely objections or opt-outs received from the Supplemental Notice Group is scheduled for July 19, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. (the “Supplemental Fairness Hearing”).

After that hearing, the Court intends to enter an amended final judgment in this case, the finality of which will re-establish the Effective Date (abated by the Court’s Order of December 19, 2023 [ECF 133]) under the Settlement Agreement between the Settlement Class and Defendant Banco Popular de Puerto Rico.

Dated: February 22, 2024

S\_____
RUTH MILLER
United States Magistrate Judge